

RULE#1: Don't Panic!

Trolls exist!

Don't let your guard down. Never allow yourself to be convinced they don't. That's when the trouble begins.

RULE#2:

Trolls love school!

It's their favourite place to be. It's not that they enjoy learning, they just like the atmosphere.

Schools have everything a Troll wants. A scrumptious, savory feast abundant with woolen hats, knitted mittens and down filled coats. Most of all, they love to munch on backpacks and lunch kits. Pencils make the perfect appetizer.
